

DISCOVER THE MAREMMA TUSCAN COAST WITH YOUR DOG

A SLOW TRAVEL VACATION

Welcome

Some trips leave a special memory simply because they allow you to slow down.

We created these Travel Notes to inspire your stay at Domus Socolatae Cocoa Journey, suggesting unique experiences to enjoy during the shoulder and low seasons—focusing on walking, cycling, and taking public transportation.

Upon your arrival, we will gladly provide updated travel details and recommend the itineraries best suited to the season, weather conditions, and your dog's needs.

Slow Experiences & Recommended Itineraries

Strolling Along the Follonica Promenade

Outside the peak summer season, the Follonica seafront transforms into a peaceful haven, perfect for leisurely walks with your dog. Stop for a coffee or an aperitif at one of the many cafes offering outdoor seating.

Domus Socolatae Tip

At check-in, we will be delighted to share the best seasonal routes and provide you with all the latest travel tips.

Cala Violina

Renowned as one of Tuscany's most breathtaking beaches, Cala Violina reveals its true magic in spring and autumn. The scenic trail winding through the Mediterranean scrub is an integral part of the experience and can be explored on foot or by bicycle.

Domus Socolatae Tip

At check-in, we will be delighted to share the best seasonal routes and provide you with all the latest travel tips.

Sterpaia Coastal Park

Pine forests, sand dunes, and the sea blend together to form one of the most stunning natural environments along the Maremma Coast. A pleasant bike ride or a gentle walk will bring you to the ideal setting to relax alongside your dog.

Domus Socolatae Tip

At check-in, we will be delighted to share the best seasonal routes and provide you with all the latest travel tips.

Massa Marittima

One of Tuscany's most captivating medieval hill towns. Piazza Garibaldi, the majestic Cathedral, and historic stone alleys invite you to slow your pace and immerse yourself in Maremma's rich history. It is easily accessible from Follonica via local public buses.

Domus Socolatae Tip

At check-in, we will be delighted to share the best seasonal routes and provide you with all the latest travel tips.

A Glass of Maremma Wine

Wrap up your day at a wine bar in central Follonica or in Piazza Garibaldi in Massa Marittima, savoring fine Maremma Tuscan wines paired with local specialties. We will gladly recommend the best spots during your stay.

Domus Socolatae Tip

At check-in, we will be delighted to share the best seasonal routes and provide you with all the latest travel tips.

Our Advice

Every season reveals a different side of Maremma. Let yourself be guided by the scents of the sea, the paths through the pine groves, and the charm of historic villages. The most memorable experiences are often the ones you didn't plan.

We look forward to welcoming you to Domus Socolatae Cocoa Journey Tuscan lifestyle B&B to help you enjoy an authentic, relaxing, and sustainable pet-friendly vacation.